About

Nika Belotserkovskaya is the popular culinary blogger, hiding in the Internet behind the nickname Belonika. In ordinary life Nika is a prosperous business lady, a publisher of glossy magazines, a wife and a mother. Cooking is her hobby, so it's no surprise that from now on she will have a TV version of her culinary blog. Yes, that's how the writer Nika Belotserkovskaya finds it easier for her to communicate with her fans and other food lovers. Belonika sends her video tips how to cook exquisite dishes from a wonderful picturesque corner of France called Camargue. She also shares stories linked to one or another culinary masterpiece! Nika discusses such things as how to cook tasty food in her culinary blog. In addition, she explains where, with whom and from what dishes you should eat it. For example, how you should choose suitable products and how to cook for "an army of soldiers" for five minutes. In addition, she also invites top chefs give their master classes in her culinary school.

About

Italian cuisine, praised by poets and glorified by famous travelers and literature classicists, still brings us pleasure. The incomparable smells of the Italian dishes - rich and tart - stimulate your fantasy and appetite. To have a better understanding of Italy and Italians, you don't have to go to luxury restaurants to try original Italian food. It's better do it in the place where this food is taken by Italians. The popular Italian singer Al Bano Carrizi will tell you about Italy and Italians, their cuisine and a bit about his life in the show "Italian Lessons". You will find out what and how Italians eat, how they live, what games their children play etc.

About

Passions may run high not only among people and not just for love, but for decor! In the course of almost 5 years Marat Ka, the brilliant designer and decorator, has been proving it in his program "Decor Passions". Decor Passions is a mix of ideas designed to add colours, vibration and fabulousness to any bleak interior. Candleholders made of clay pots, painted glass, extraordinary tables and marble chairs - you can make all these things with your own hands due to Marat Ka's lessons. All you will need is a little effort and cheap materials. His show has served as a magic wand for many people decorating their homes or redecorating old things, which seemed useless. Delighted audience are amazed to see how the genius Marat Ka turns a simple chair into a throne or a clock, a collection of classic writers - into a lamp, an old overshoe or an ordinary soccer ball - into a luxury candleholder. You can't take your eyes off, when Marat Ka creates with his hands a Christmas tree from hangers, fancy candles, a rocking horse ...
