About

The most touching reality-show about celebrities expecting their children – PREGNANT! The phrase: “My congratulations, you’ll have a baby!” divides a woman’s life in two periods: “before” and “after”. Emotions engulf you, while thousands of questions pop in your head: how to behave during your pregnancy, when and how to choose a maternity clinic, should you make a contract with it? No panic! The participants of “Pregnant” reality-show will share details of their pregnancies and tell you how to overcome all arising difficulties. The first season was released with celebrity participants: a host Tutta Larson, Dmitry Dibrov’s wife Polina and an ex-singer of Demo band Sasha Zvereva. New starring participants in the second season – Galina Udashkina, Valeria Gai Germanika and Darya Pynzar – are joined by ordinary women. No paparazzi hunt them, and nobody takes their interviews. However, as any mother, they are ready to do all the best for their babies. Over nine months the girls will learn joy of the first acquaintance with ...

About

BEAUTY STANDARDS Women want to be pretty in all countries and at all times. Admit it: it's always pleasant to look at a pretty girl. When a girl is pretty, she feels more confident: men want her, admire her, dedicate their poems to her, move mountains and go to the world's end to fight dragons and find new continents for her. Though beauty standards changed with years, their basic principle is still the same. However, why do we hear an expression "beauty victim" more and more often today? Why does the number of girls, who have plastic surgeries and drive themselves to anorexia, is increasing? Why do sociologists claim that the main reason of modern girls' low self-esteem is linked to their looks? Why does beauty bring no joy today, but huge problems and nervous breakdowns? And what is beauty today?

LOVE RELIGION 16+

tags: marriage, celebrities, relations, psychology, family

genre: biography, relationship, documentary

seasons	min	episodes	year
1 episode	49	1	2015

About

These women can do almost anything for love: leave their families, move to another country, change their views, habits and even ... religion. Love ignores nationalities and religions. However, some women have to make a compromise to stay with men they love. An actor Marat Basharov's ex-wife Elizaveta Krutsko succumbed to his persuasions to take Islam. Her father vehemently opposed it, but Elizaveta and Marat had an Islamic wedding. A few years past, they divorced, and Elizaveta returned to Orthodox Christianity. Psychologists believe, that if one of the spouses changes one's religion just for the sake of his or her better half, such marriage is not tightly-knit. Each nationality and religion has its traditions, which are handed at genetic level. Eventually spouses may intrude each other's habitual lives. However, there are some happy couples, who were able to avoid religious contradictions in their relationships. For example, Maria Arbatova is happy with her third husband - Sumit Dutta Gupta, the Prince of Bengal. ...

About

Deadly Love: What Makes People Go To Extremes? True stories of women, who have broken all the commandments in fight for their happiness, in the project "I Killed Him". All pairs promise "to have and to hold, from this day forward, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, until death do us apart". But life is unpredictable; sometimes all your dreams of happy ending can suddenly shatter against a jail bar. What can drive a wedge between those who have just recently pictured their promising future? Why would a friendly colleague, a smiling neighbor or even your best friend decide to cross the fatal line behind which there is no way back? Among the heroines of the project: • a mother of two daughters, whose blind jealousy turned her into a merciless murderess; • an attractive student, who lynched another person for her affronted dignity; • a modest woman tired of combatting her husband's drinking and violence. What moment did they go on warpath and thought no holds were barred? Wha ...
