It doesn’t only spoil the relationships in a family; sometimes scandals, parents’ unwillingness to hear their children and cruelty force teenagers to protest. They often start looking for understanding in the streets to hurt their parents and then fall under the influence of bad companies. The result of such “understanding” is horrible. Psychologists will explain how you can get on well with your child, keep his or her trust and understanding. But, unfortunately, the daily routine doesn’t always let parents see when it’s time to turn for help. The situation gets out of control and their child’s destiny is decided by the court...
