About

Why do men leave? is a collection of films about the most relevant things in married life: divorces. Why do families, who used to be tightly knit and secured, fall apart in an eye-blink? Why do recent harmonious relationships get upset? What makes men suddenly slam the door after they have sworn to love you forever? The well-known psychologist Elena Novoselova, hosting the show, is a qualified guide in the relationships between men and women. Elena analyses the most typical reasons forcing people to divorce from the position of men. Elena will help her guests to find out what really happened in their families, what was an obstacle in building relationships with their men and, most important, what they should do n
