About

+ 100500 is a review of absolutely hilarious jaw-dropping Internet videos. Spade skating at the Kremlin walls, jumping into a swimming pool out of a hotel window, motorcycles crush in at the very heart of desert, animals-sportsmen and, of course, kitties! +100500 is the first case in the Russian TV history, when a project, produced by the Runet, shot to fame among the Internet audience and later was released on TV. Today reviews of the drollest Runet videos in + 100500 inevitably top the list at Russian speaking YouTube – each video collects up to 3 million views per week and more than 25 mln. views per month. Each new video gets 5-10 thousand comments the very first day of its release. + 100500 can be truly called the Runet phenomenon: not a single regular Internet project managed to go that far. Its producers assure that they did without the Black Magic- the secret of their success are Maxim's charm and sense of humour. But the major reason is that the project is absolutely sincere; it is still produced like

About

Classmates sketchcom characters went to a school reunion party to boast their clearly exaggerated success at work and in private life. But the more they talked the more they realized that nothing had changed since their school years. They were hiding their money from their wives like they used to hide their marks from their parents, they were picking up lingerie shop assistants instead of their school lunches and still preferred shopping or shing to any activity. They had work, families and children, but they were still school geeks and bullies still the same classm

About

Traffic jams, cashiers, parking lots, Rublevka residents and VIP salons for pets – all these things are commented by Vladimir Vinogradov, ex-police officer, straight shooter and the best-known narrator from the province, from the position of a back countryman. Things, which are habitual and natural for Muscovites, seem shocking and strange for people from the backcountry. On the one hand, the reality show tries to underline the difference in lifestyles, on the other hand, it is aimed at helping Muscovites and non-Muscovites have closer ways of thinking by explaining why life in big cities is set this way

About

The sketch show JOKES is the film version of 500 best-known hilarious anecdotes. The main characters are played by popular actors and famous comics, each of whom has chosen a character to his liking. The Russian audience have known the sketch show characters since their childhood: Vovochka, a stupid blondie, a mother-in-law, a married couple and a lover in a wardrobe. Yuri Galtsev played the role of the head of The Army Recruiting Office who had found an original way of helping draftees avoid military service. He also hopes to play a real intellectual a scientist of physics or chemistry. Andrey Fedortsov had the roles of the heads of various families: from stodgers betrayed by their wives to family tyrants and despots. As for Semen Strugachev, he appeared in the sketches devoted to male friendship. The actor has lots of friends of various professions, so he is well-versed in the subject. Anecdotes are things that make us who we are! Nothing unites a merry party better than their love of anecdotes. Perhaps

About

The Driving School's heroes are people who have been officially given up as hopeless: these blondies and dummies have failed dozens of driving tests at the State Automobile Inspectorate. But the kidding is over. From now on old-time professionals will take these pedestrians under their patronage. During four weeks the trainees will have to learn road traffic rules, pass tests on practice ground and open roads. The Driving School's basic principle sounds quite weird: the worst stay, the best leave. It is because every week the most diligent trainees go to take their tests to the State Automobile Inspectorate right from the shooting area. Meanwhile D students go on exhausting their driving instructors by bumping into overbeds, scratching bumpers and mixing up right and left. We won't let them go until they le

About

The first odd series, - that's how the film director Ruslan Kechedzhiyan called his work. He has mixed up a documentary, a reality-show and a feature film in equal portions in the project. There are no professional actors here: policemen play policemen, while gangsters play gangsters. The heroes bear their real names and don't overact, because they don't act at all. We are from Rostov is a story of three charismatic twenty-year-old fellows who live in the gangster district of Rostov - the Western Residential Area. Ruslan Kechedzhiyan met them, when he was shooting, and turned on the heat to shoot a film about their life. The one and only odd series on Russian TV We are from Rostov show the life in the Western Residential Area in its true colours. Rostov used to be a notorious criminal city in the past. The Western Residential Area in a notorious criminal district in the present: tough rules and fights, first-rate con tricks and, naturally, love. We are from Rostov
