About

The Army's toughening sets you up in life! . Long since the XIII century, the Cadet Military Schools graduates became honourable officers, national elite, the defenders of their Fatherland, the support and pride of the upper-class society. These schools are elite institutions; it has always been honourable but extremely hard to study there. By a twist of fate, fourteen-year-old boys get into the Suvorov Military School: some of them follow family traditions, others achieve their high ideals; there are even some boys who get there against their will . After fellows have been admitted to the Suvorov Military School, they fail to realize at first the total load and, most important, the responsibility, which will have a great impact on their future lives. Gradually the students learn the unspoken laws of honour, the depth and continuity of the tradition. They live like one family and mature hardening their will and character. Each of them has his own destiny, cherished dream, first love . Their friends and fam

About

"Hotel Eleon" is a completely new series, a spin-off of the legendary "The Kitchen" – one of the most favorite out of CTC series. The focus now is not only the kitchen itself, but also a hotel: the boss retired, received a cherished Michelin star, Eleanora Andreevna found her happiness in the northern capital, a love drama of Vika and Max came to an end. Nevertheless, the life goes on, and the Hotel Eleon is ready to welcome guests. Favorite actors from "The Kitchen" will remain with us: Dzhekovich is still responsible for the perfect order in the hotel, a former waitress Nastya replaces the responsible post of Victoria Sergeevna (Kostya is terrified of his wife's career zigzags), and thoughtless Senya becomes the chief of the restaurant Victor. And everything is good, but instead of Eleanora Andreevna the hotel is now headed by her nephew Paul – a light-minded but tricky young man. In order to manage the hotel effectively, he invites a super manager Soya Tolstaya, and she sets the rules that will not appeal to

About

Two families, sharing the last name of Ivanov and each raising an adult son, find out that their children were mixed up at maternity hospital 16 years ago. This event naturally turns the world of both families upside down. Which child belongs to whom? Do they need to swap children? Who they should love more: their biological child or someone else's child that has long become their own? Things are made even more complicated by the fact that the two families hardly have anything in common. The rich Ivanovs live in a big beautiful house and have servants. The poor Ivanovs live with their retired grandfather in his old farmhouse. In a sense, the two Ivanov families are the metaphor for the two kinds of Russia that have emerged on the territory of this country over the past 20 years. Everything is different in the everyday of these two Russias: each has its own shopping spaces, its own clinics, its own jobs, its own ways of vacationing. The only things they share are the country and TV. Not knowing what to do with their children, th
