About

The mid 80s: Gorbachev, glasnost, first cooperative societies, perestroika, 1986, global changes are just about to start. Ordinary people's life still runs its old course, but the feeling of freedom already hangs thick in the air. And the youth are always first to catch it. The main character of the series is a typical eighteen-year-old second-year student named Vanya (Alexander Yakin). He lives a hectic student's life: study at the institute, life in the student's hall of residence, field days to gather potatoes, secret home concerts, new friends, love and even sex, which allegedly did not take place in the Soviet Union. Vanya and his peers are ready for new changes; the job of an engineer with a 120-rouble salary is not their ultimate dream. They listen to banned music, catch banned radio stations, dream of having right jeans and do not want to live their old life. The Driving School's heroes are people who have been officially given up as hopeless: these blondies and dummies have failed dozens of driving tests at the State Automobile Inspectorate. But the kidding is over. From now on old-time professionals will take these pedestrians under their patronage. During four weeks the trainees will have to learn road traffic rules, pass tests on practice ground and open roads. The Driving School's basic principle sounds quite weird: the worst stay, the best leave. It is because every week the most diligent trainees go to take their tests to the State Automobile Inspectorate right from the shooting area. Meanwhile D students go on exhausting their driving instructors by bumping into overbeds, scratching bumpers and mixing up right and left. We won't let them go until they le

About

«The ThousandRublesMan gives a fresh look at quick money! It's a fast moving and unlooked-for smart show! Its central idea is as simple as an apple pie! The omnipresent host Alexey Zhirov gets warmed up and runs outside with a heap of new and, most important, real thousand ruble banknotes. He runs up to a casual passer-by and asks him or her a question. If the answer is correct, the prize is a thousand ruble banknote. If the answer is wrong or too slow, the host runs away with the mone

About

There is an ordinary Russian city, where there lives an ordinary man named Valera. He is the peak of evolution: homo camerus (a cameraman). One day he took a camera and has never left the hold of it since then. His camera is the extension of his arm, a part of his body, which is with him any time and in any place. Valera shoots everything and anything in the city, where he lives. Weddings, funerals, local talents and ordinary people fall his victims ... Valera's show is a selection of videos, where he is a cameraman. Each video has its name and caption. The show's participants can even comment events. Though the audience can't see the film director, they see everything through hi

About

The sketch show Watch Out For Children! invites boys and girls and their parents to put themselves into perspective and have a good laugh! There will be no lectures! This show is like a mirror in a mirror house: it reflects the reality pointing out some things, which are really funny. The sketch show is about the relationships between children and their parents, when adult logic turn powerless in front of children's quick wit and fantasy. Children adapt quickly to the modern life environment, that's why they turn adults round their little fingers playing by their rules, easily manipulating their parents, teachers and other characters from the adult

About

The first odd series, - that's how the film director Ruslan Kechedzhiyan called his work. He has mixed up a documentary, a reality-show and a feature film in equal portions in the project. There are no professional actors here: policemen play policemen, while gangsters play gangsters. The heroes bear their real names and don't overact, because they don't act at all. We are from Rostov is a story of three charismatic twenty-year-old fellows who live in the gangster district of Rostov - the Western Residential Area. Ruslan Kechedzhiyan met them, when he was shooting, and turned on the heat to shoot a film about their life. The one and only odd series on Russian TV We are from Rostov show the life in the Western Residential Area in its true colours. Rostov used to be a notorious criminal city in the past. The Western Residential Area in a notorious criminal district in the present: tough rules and fights, first-rate con tricks and, naturally, love. We are from Rostov

About

WHAT'S GOING ON? According to the project producers, Our people can't live without criminal news. Well, we decided to please them by making an information show What Is Going On? Now obedient citizens will get comprehensive information on the subject how the police Themis gives it to fraudsters, thieves and other criminal garbage in the neck. The show looks like ordinary news: car accidents, hijacking, arsons, murders, suicides etc. But it's not so simple! It has a completely different presentation: Vlad Nekrasov, the journalist of What's Going On? , cracks reports like jokes. He does it so gloomily, so you l
