About

Aboutprovence. Dramatic Stories is a TV show about people, their life stories and, naturally, about food. The popular blogger and cookery expert Nika Belotserkovskaya is crazy about France and French cuisine. She shot documentary series about Provence the territory we hardly know and its wonderful people who have made taste their profession. Aboutprovence includes four films about people crazy about their professions. For example, a Parisienne named Elian quit her job of a hairdresser and went to Provence, where she married a shepherd 15 year younger than her. Now they breed rare goats and make the best cheese in France. Brothers from Pakistan have a different life story: they went to France with the only dream: to be the best chefs in the country. In a few years, their dishes were the calling cards of the top European restaurants. Bob has a small restaurant in a Gypsy village and cooks the best duck breast in Provence. Monsieur Sharielle, a gentleman by birth, was called the Provence's Karabas

About

The series include thrilling filmed stories about adultery. Each episode is a finished story with the set-up, the climax and the upshot. These are structurally vertical series, linked by the character of Observer – a sexologist named Andrey, a brilliant expert in the field of family psychology. Andrey's collection is huge. It has stories to everybody's taste: absurd, tragic and sometimes funny ones. The variety of these stories make the series multi genre: here you can find a detective story, a thriller, a melodrama with comic elements etc. In each episode, Andrey has a new client. The client starts telling his or her story and then actors reconstruct the situation in the style of docudrama. Andrey appears in the episode two more times to give some additional details; his appearance is the turning point in the story. At the end of the episode, the sexologist sums up and evaluates the situation. Andrey's conclusions always have some practical tips – how to identify adultery, how to

About

BEAUTY STANDARDS Women want to be pretty in all countries and at all times. Admit it: it's always pleasant to look at a pretty girl. When a girl is pretty, she feels more confident: men want her, admire her, dedicate their poems to her, move mountains and go to the world's end to fight dragons and find new continents for her. Though beauty standards changed with years, their basic principle is still the same. However, why do we hear an expression "beauty victim" more and more often today? Why does the number of girls, who have plastic surgeries and drive themselves to anorexia, is increasing? Why do sociologists claim that the main reason of modern girls' low self-esteem is linked to their looks? Why does beauty bring no joy today, but huge problems and nervous breakdowns? And what is beauty?

GYPSY LOVE The documentary is dedicated to the memory of the chief gypsy of the Soviet cinema, the outstanding actor Mikhail Volontir. They say gypsy love is changeable, while gypsies are free as the air. It doesn't matter, what takes place in the yard. It may rain, snow, stars may fall. Presidents come and go. You just do your thing, - said Budulai, Mikhail Volontir's character in the film Gypsy. There are popular films. There are favourite ones. And there are adorable ones. When Gypsy was on air, streets turned empty. The entire country felt for Budulai. There were so many letters from the audience, that the producers decided to shoot its sequel Budulai's Return. Many years past, people learned that the actor was seriously ill: he had diabetes; he was going blind and needed an urgent operation. Meanwhile, the People's Artist of the USSR Mikhail Volontir, who lived in Moldova at that period, received a tiny pension and barely made two ends meet. Why was the People's

However, some women have to make a compromise to stay with men they love. An actor Marat Basharov's ex-wife Elizaveta Krutsko succumbed to his persuasions to take Islam. Her father vehemently opposed it, but Elizaveta and Marat had an Islamic wedding. A few years past, they divorced, and Elizaveta returned to Orthodox Christianity. Psychologists believe, that if one of the spouses changes one's religion just for the sake of his or her better half, such marriage is not tightly-knit. Each nationality and religion has its traditions, which are handed at genetic level. Eventually spouses may intrude each other's habitual lives. However, there are some happy couples, who were able to avoid religious contradictions in their relationships. For example, Maria Arbatova is happy with her third husband Sumit Dutta Gupta, the Prin

About

The New Year holiday has been the top holiday in Russia for many years! Whatever happens to us, to our political system, whatever changes take place in our lives, the New Year holiday always stays the same. It comes to every home and brings new hopes, new miracles and new dreams. The New Year holiday is the most popular family holiday! Its fairy-tale night is always full of miracles. It seems nothing can affect its course of events: a New Year tree, your family around you, feast and miracles. A year succeeds a year, an epoch succeeds an epoch and so forth with the strike of the clock. Times change, manners too. But all of them have their specific features. Romantic 60s , Warmhearted 70s , Golden 80s and Wild 90s : these are the names of episodes of documentary series Our New Year . Each episode is devoted to one decade. It shows the specific features of New Year celebration in Russia at a particular period of time and people's special attitude to this holiday.

About

Happy families are all alike; every unhappy family is unhappy in its own way. - this sentence from Anna Karenina written by the great Russian writer Leo Tolstoy can serve as the epigraph to the documentary series Parents Pain. Perhaps, peace and harmony in one's family is the prime condition of happiness for everybody. However, all of us have different reasons preventing them. It's often hard to agree even with the best loved ones, to share our secrets, grieve and joy with them. Sometimes misunderstanding, arising from the generation gap, can turn into a wide-scale family drama. The project is focused on people, who used to or still have conflicts with their children or parents. They agreed to discuss their problems openly not to wash their dirty linen in public. Some of these people share their problems and worries hoping that somebody will come forward to support them at difficult times. Others talk about their trials, because they believe that their experience will help the rest avoid their

About

Academics say: mysticism does not exist. Why do people still try to read fortune, like in the pagan times? And, most important: why do fortunes, told by fortune-tellers, come true? Back in the pagan Ancient Rus, girls went to cemeteries or locked themselves in empty saunas to see their future ancestors. Lots of fortune telling methods are still used for predictions. What happens during such rituals? How dangerous is such communication with spiritual powers for people? During Christmas divinations, which lasted for 12 days, both men and women went to fortune-tellers to learn their future. People are still anxious to visit such village and city seers. Who are these people: real mediators between this and another world? Or they are just competent psychologists, telling you the things you want to hear?

About

It may sound paradoxical, but fear is one of the most generous gifts given to people by nature. Fear mobilizes all our energy; it aggravates our feelings and serves as the basis for our instinct for self-preservation. But fear, which has gone beyond rational, has strong destructive power. How can you live when you are horrified of falling asleep? Or eating? Walking or standing? Hearing your own voice? Seeing your reflection in the mirror? The number of phobias is huge, and it's skyrocketing. Ten years ago, there were just 300 of fears, now they amount to 1030! If it goes this way, people will die of their own nightmares. The documentary series The Secrets of Fears touch the most common fears, which you face everywhere every day. Everyone will find some painfully familiar fear in one of the episodes. Where is the line behind which healthy fears turn into painful phobias? You'll find the answers in the series. They will help you find out how phobias emerge, the secret scientists are yet to open.
