About

Tatiana finds out that the man that she has lived with is gone leaving a very expensive bracelet as a present. She is absolutely confused when her daughter Liza who has also ended things with her boyfriend pays a visit to Tatiana. As they are thinking what they should do next and where they should keep the bracelet, Tatiana's mother Larisa comes to see them. Funnily enough, she also decided to be single and leave than man that she has lived with for the last ten years. The women decide that the best place to keep the bracelet is a safe box at Tatiana's apartment but they don't know how to open it. But they know a person who can open the safe box it's Larisa's former lover named Cat. The women go to Cat's office where the bracelet mysteriously disappears. The story of them searching for the thief and the bracelet interlaces with them reminiscing the men of their lives. The result of the search exceeds their wildest
