Academics say: mysticism does not exist. Why do people still try to read fortune, like in the pagan times? And, most important: why do fortunes, told by fortune-tellers, come true? Back in the pagan Ancient Rus, girls went to cemeteries or locked themselves in empty saunas to see their future ancestors. Lots of fortune telling methods are still used for predictions. What happens during such rituals? How dangerous is such communication with spiritual powers for people? During Christmas divinations, which lasted for 12 days, both men and women went to fortune-tellers to learn their future. People are still anxious to visit such village and city seers. Who are these people: real mediators between this and another world? Or they are just competent psychologists, telling you the things you want to hear?
