About

You long dreamed of having a dog and, finally, you've got a pet. No matter what kind of dog you have: nice or naughty, rabbit-hearted or cocky, kind or angry, sad or jolly, you won't be able to find a more reliable and loyal friend. You thought you wouldn't have any trouble with your dog, who would give you only joy. But, some time past, you found out it attacked and bit people, howled at nights, chewed your shoes, pestered passers-by, stole food from your table and did what it liked. If your pet got out of hand, turned your enemy, if you fell out with your dog, can't find common language with it and feel sick and tired of these problems, a dog handler and psychologist Andrey Shuvalov will help you out. He will explain, why your dog behaves not the way you want it to and what it thinks and feels. He will assist in solving any problem. The vital thing for you is to understand your dog, then you'll be able to control its behavior. Andrey visits dog owners in each episode and finds out what problems they have. Th

About

It is easy to help people in need. You just shouldn't walk on by. A Good Deed is a program about ordinary people, everyday heroes, who didn't walk on by, didn't close their eyes on other people's grief and did a good deed. Their acts of heroism gave people in trouble the second chance. Alexey Kortnev, the host of the program, tells us about the heroes, who have done good deeds, and thanks them sincerely on behalf of the audience and rescued people. A Good Deed will make you believe, that altruism still exists. Perhaps, right at the moment somebody is in danger, but, fortunately, there are people ready to help and do a good deed! The feats of these modest heroes shouldn't stay in the background. Each good deed should be praised. The country should
