About

As a result of an unsuccessful time travel experiment, two families living 37 years apart find themselves neighbors inside the same apartment, half of which is in 1982 and the other in 2020. In the 82nd year, Professor Matvey Piotrovsky lives in this apartment with his nineteen-year-old grandson Pavel, and in 2020 - Sergey and Svetlana Uspekhov with their daughter Christina. The new neighborhood gives the heroes a lot of problems and inconveniences, since the layering of two times deprives each of the families of access to the second half of the apartment.

About

Two families, sharing the last name of Ivanov and each raising an adult son, find out that their children were mixed up at maternity hospital 16 years ago. This event naturally turns the world of both families upside down. Which child belongs to whom? Do they need to swap children? Who they should love more: their biological child or someone else's child that has long become their own? Things are made even more complicated by the fact that the two families hardly have anything in common. The rich Ivanovs live in a big beautiful house and have servants. The poor Ivanovs live with their retired grandfather in his old farmhouse. In a sense, the two Ivanov families are the metaphor for the two kinds of Russia that have emerged on the territory of this country over the past 20 years. Everything is different in the everyday of these two Russias: each has its own shopping spaces, its own clinics, its own jobs, its own ways of vacationing. The only things they share are the country and TV. Not knowing what to do with their children, th
